THIS WEEK

NEXT WEEK

UTS, Southern Sharks, Manly-Warringah and Parramatta have all had excellent seasons. UTS have been the team to beat this year though Manly proved that they were beatable last week! Can UTS produce the goods against the Sharks? And will the Wolves feast on some goanna? An interesting finals series looms....

Welcome to the FOXTEL Sydney AFL 1st Division Finals series.

The team to beat this year are UTS - they have proved to the footballing community that last year's premiership win against Sydney Uni wasn't a fluke. Their line-up is different in 2007 though still of the highest quality with captain Andrew Davis leading the charge.

The Southern Sharks have also had an excellent season in 2007 and with the benefit of a rest before finals they will be looking to upset the Bats on the wide spaces of Kelso. The young Sharks, lead by Phil Hamer will be keen to book their place in the Grand Final at 5pm this Saturday afternoon.

Manly-Warringah's premiership hopes received a huge boost last weekend with a resounding win over the Bats at Trumper and with Kurt Hayward patrolling his Wolves, Manly-Warringah are in with a real shot of holding the premiership cup aloft on the 8th September.

Before the Wolves even start thinking about premierships, they need to knock off a very determined Holroyd-Parramatta. The Goannas have improved out of sight this year under the guidance of Troy Balzan and their spot in the finals is warranted. Andrew Munns and his troops are planning an upset.

At 2:30pm this Saturday afternoon in the battle for the right to go through to the Grand Final, the UTS Bats meet the Southern Sharks in a battle royale. Both teams have only met once this year, way back in Round 1 where the Bats won by 29 points out at Barden Ridge Oval though both the Sharks and Bats have changed their line-ups significantly since then and nothing can be taken from their previous encounter. UTS were brought back to earth with a thud last weekend against the Wolves, though still possess the class of Davis, Moten, Rabbitt and Quinn to bounce back. On the other hand, the Sharks have a great combination of experience and youth on their side, the wise older heads of Stanton and Philip combined with youth of Napper, Collins and Fritsch will prove to be a major handful for the Bats. Both teams will no doubt be keen to take the short-cut to the Grand Final and with a touch more talent and experience on their side, the Bats should edge through in a thriller. Bats by 9 points.

Sunday's match between the Manly-Warringah Wolves and the Holroyd-Parramatta Goannas will be a bruising encounter, with both sides possessing strong mobile big men who have the ability not only to control the game though also the ability to put on good shepherd!

The Wolves will be looking for another super performance from Jarvie, Pridgeon and Hawkins whilst the Goannas will be looking for Balzan, Smith and Whalan to bring home the bacon. Last time the two clubs met, the Wolves ran out convincing winners by 53 points at Weldon Oval, though on Sunday both clubs will compete on a much bigger deck with a lot more at stake- the loser can start preparing their Mad Monday celebrations whilst the winner will be back at Kelso the week after in a preliminary final. Manly were very impressive against the Bats and their quickness and slick ball use will be too much for Holroyd-Parramatta. Wolves by 30 points. Hope to see you at the footy.

IN MEMORY OF BRYAN CAIRNDUFF

It is with great sadness that Southern Sharks and Southern Power announce the passing of Bryan Cairnduff. Bryan lost his battle with cancer on 21 August 2007 after a long battle with the illness. Bryan has a very decorated past with Junior football in NSW, his many years of service to the Bangor Football club as a coach and an administrator earned him a life membership honour in 2002. His passion to grow AFL came to fruition in 2007 with the birth of the Southern Power under 18's side, aligning itself with Southern Sharks AFC. His relationship quickly blossomed in to a 'one-club – united-as-one' group of footballers and volunteers. Bryan had fought to get this concept running for several years and the success of the side in 2007 is solely due to Bryan's influence. The members of the Sharks and Power send their condolences to the Bryan's Family at this time - he will be sorely missed. The Sharks and Power players will wear black armbands as a mark of respect to the founder and coach of the 2007 Southern Power. There will also be a minutes silence before all finals matches involving the Southern Sharks this weekend.

SIMON DAVIES (North Shore)

North Shore Simon Davies is the Round 17 NAB Rising Star Nominee. Davies is the fifth North Shore player to receive a nomination and caught the eye of the judges with his explosive speed, precise skills and elusiveness around goals. Davies made an immediate impact on the Bombers side following his return from the NAB National Under 18's Championships, where he performed very well. Davies will have a key role to play as the Bombers eye 2007 Premiership glory. Essendon have high hopes for the midfielder having taken the 17 year old as a scholarship player in 2007.

VOLUNTEERS OF THE WEEK- Brendan Rhodes and Dan Johnston (Digital Sports)

Brendan Rhodes and Dan Johnston have been the voices of the Foxtel coverage of the Sydney AFL for a number of years now and have done so on a volunteer basis.

Week in and week out the guys head out to every corner of the competition and lend their voices to our great game. Brendan made the move a couple of years ago to Sydney from the Ovens and Murray league, whilst Dan has a proud history with the Southern Sharks. Both Dan and Brendan have built up an extensive knowledge of Sydney footy and whilst you may not know them, they know nearly every player playing the game today.

Television coverage of the Sydney AFL began in 2003 and special mention should be made to a number of other volunteers who have helped out along the way including Darren Simpson, Doug Scholz, Matt Gray, Andrew Baxter, and more recently Mark Drinkwater.

Brendan and Dan are looking forward to calling another exciting finals series again this year!

PRESIDENTS RUMBLINGS

This week sees the final home and away round in Premier Division and the first week of Finals in First Division. A number of our Umpires will be Umpiring two games this weekend to ensure that both the Premier Division and the first week of the finals series for the First Division has a full compliment of umpires. Spare a thought for those running multiple games on the weekend as it may be one of a number of games that they have volunteered to do to ensure our games have a full panel of umpires appointed.

MILESTONES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

Farewell to Mike Heinrichs who umpired his last game in Sydney on Sunday August 12 at Drummonyne Oval in the reserves in the field.

Mike has been with the group for close to 15 years and achieved the pinnacle of Umpiring in waving the flags on the last Saturday in September in 1999 in the AFL Grand Final. Mike will be missed by his friends in Sydney but I'm sure will be in contact with us when he visits Sydney from his new abode in Tassie. Frank Kalayzich umpired his 350th Senior game last weekend at Sydney University. Congratulations to Paul Barron and Matthew Gestier who reach 50 1st grade senior games this weekend. Nathan Lessels also umpires his 50th total game this weekend.

NEXT ASSOCIATION FUNCTION

Presidents Night will be held on Tuesday 11 September 2007 at the Hotel Intercontinental with a 6:30 pm for 7:00 pm start. Presentation Night is on Saturday 22 September 2007. Responses for both these nights are due, so please let a Committee person know of your intention to attend either function, which are assured to be great nights.
