Last weekend saw most games go according to plan and all of a sudden the traffic jam has gone and the top 4 look settled...or does it? With two big losses on the weekend, the Eagles and Bulldogs will have all guns blazing in a super match out at Village Green and the Crows and Blues meet in what should be another spiteful encounter!

The top four of the AFL Sydney Premier Division Ladder looks quite settled...for the moment. If the Blues manage to knock over the Crows this weekend, the winner of the Eagles and Bulldogs match will still be 1.5 games out of the top four with five rounds to play! Other matches include the Demons taking on the Dockers, the Bombers at home against Wests and in what should also should be a great match out at North Dalton Park the Lions take on the students in a battle royale.

This Saturday's match out at Village Green between the fifth positioned East Coast Eagles and sixth positioned UNSW/ES Bulldogs will be an encounter to remember, with both sides desperate to keep their Top 4 chances alive I can assure you that both teams will give it a red hot crack! After their loss to the Crows last weekend, can the Eagles find some form under the guidance of Rowan Graham and his entourage? Or can Matthew Nicks use some of his Swans experience to give the Bulldogs a sniff of September glory? Eagles by 6 points.

Ern Holmes Oval this weekend will see the Pennant Hills Demons take on the Balmain Dockers. The Dockers will be the fresher outfit after a week off due to a power failure out at Henson Park, though the Demon's juggernaut will be way too strong; a fantastic 100+ point win last weekend against the Bulldogs saw guns Laine Spencer kicking seven and Brant Jack on fire. Though can Hall and Co. continue on their good last quarter form they showed against the Bulldogs to conjure up a contest? I hope so, though I don't think so. Demons by 50 points.

Fingers crossed that the Bombers actually get a match this week. They face a Western Suburbs outfit fresh from a tight win against the students, whilst the Bombers had a week off due to the Henson Park issue. North Shore are favourites and so they should be, they have a lot more to play for and will be a little too skilful for the Magpies- Michael Cowell and Chris McLachlan should do the job, though if Hudson and Eurell continue their good form they could surprise. Bombers by 30 points.

Sunday afternoons always provide a good spectacle of football and all attendees are promised a great game between two sides not in contention for the finals though equally as desperate and hungry for a win. The Lions face a students outfit who have showed fantastic endeavour and spirit over the last few weeks though haven't managed to get across the line, whilst the Lions are also in the same boat. The home ground advantage should prove the difference between the two and with the likes of Clint Wells and Matthew Adamson playing well for the Lions, Wollongong should be able to stop the likes of Higgins and Wakelin. Lions by 12 points.

Last time the Crows and Blues met at Monarch, St George ran out easy winners in a tough encounter. This time Olds Park is the venue and things have changed slightly, the Crows have improved, though the Blues have improved out of sight and also have a little bit more to play for(breathing space!). Can McBride, Shinneberg and Cole stop the likes of Garner, Parker and Webb? Should be a great tussle. Crows by 8 points.

BART MILL (Pennant Hills)

Pennant Hill's Bart Mill is this weeks NAB Rising Star nominee. Bart has just turned 17 and has now played (4 after Western Suburbs) senior games with Pennant Hills, after excelling in the Under 18's as captain. His performances so far have seen him in the best players including the big win over North Shore in Round 10. This year he has also represented the Sydney Swans Reserves, and is a member of the NSW ACT Rams Development Squad. In 2006 Bart played for U18 Pennant Hills, U18 Sydney Red-backs and U16 Sydney Starz. He hails from the Westbrook Football Club where he played in 3 consecutive premierships in 2003/04/05 as well as various representative teams. A tenacious and skilful midfielder, possessing strong team ethic and leadership skills, Bart works very hard on improving all aspects of his game.

VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK— RUSS 'The Muss' PENTON (St George Crows)Name: Russ 'The Muss' PentonAFL Team supported: RichmondPosition held at St.George: 1st grade Team Manager/Trainer.How did you start out at St.George? The club sent players to my boxing gym in 93 and I drank from their premiership cup. I had stints with a couple of other clubs and came back to the Saints in 2004.Length of time with club? 93 – 2007 with stints at other clubs in between. Back full time at St George in 2004.Highlight of the week: Listening to Johnno's commentary on Foxtel every Wednesday night and having a few drinks with the boys after a big win.Occupation outside of football? Landscaper.What is it about the club that I admire? What I admire most about St.George is the club unity. Everyone from President to players and volunteers are equal when they wear the club colours. We play and work for each other.What is the most difficult task you perform? No task is to difficult to perform because I have good support from within the club. I award a beer mug to my team's most courageous player each week called Mussy's Mongrel and there are always many worthy recipients to pick from.Most admired player in the AFL/why? Most admired player in AFL is Richmond's Nathan Brown. I was at the Telstra Dome when he broke his leg and it's an inspiration to see him back in the seniors playing so well.Why St. George nominated Russell:

Russ doesn't care what needs to be done, he just does it. He is always smiling and is a fantastic club man, always lifting people's spirits when things look grim. He doesn't ask for anything in return and is always polite and respectful with all the supporters. While he hates to lose he always cops it on the chin with out complaining and gets on with life. Russ is great to have at the St George Crows.

Saturday was a dark day for the Bulldogs as our firsts were given a football lesson by a ruthless Pennant Hills outfit. The less said about the game the better. Gus Darling was our only winner for the day. Chicken Coupe, Jules Ryan and young gun James Keogh battled away manfully but the other 18 had days that they would rather forget. Let's hope that the inept display burns in the guts of the players and that this week they come out and have a red hot crack at East Coast Eagles. Conversely, despite getting beaten by the top of the table Demons, the Reserve Grade can hold their heads high after a performance full of character. They started the game with 18 and had 3 young fellas from the Under 18s back up and were only 4 goals down with 5 minutes to go. One Bicep Fryer was an inspiring captain and his lead was followed by Kanye, BJ Dessent (who rolled back the clock to the mid 90's), Special Kay and the Hangman. The 3rds and 4th continued on their winning ways setting up a big clash between the two teams at the VG on Saturday. The Under 18s (comprising 6 Under 16s and 1 Under 15) had an almighty crack at top of the table Riverview and were in front at half time. In the second half the classy Riverview team got on top but the boys hung tough and with 5 or 6 players to come back after school holidays I am sure they can make a late run at the finals. Luke Elasi was terrific across half back, Kieran Emery in just his 4th game of footy dominated the ruck against a very good opponent and Damo gave plenty of dash off half back. Everybody at the Bulldogs would like to wish Mark Bennett from the Mac Uni a speedy recovery from his injury suffered at the VG a couple of weeks ago. Today we would like to welcome the juniors from our local area to the Village Green for a pie and can of coke. Boys, we hope you enjoy the day. Today we also welcome ECE to the VG in a bumper day for the club when all 5 men's teams compete. The Bulldog is confident that the seniors will show their true character and bounce back and keep their finals hopes alive. Everybody should stick around for a couple of quiet upstairs at the Sam Crack and watch the Bulldog's and Whales go head to head in what should be an absorbing contest.

First grade came very close to winning once again, hopefully soon one of these close ones will go the Students way. The Reserve grade didn't have their best day, but still managed a comfortable win. This Sunday sees the Students make the bus trip down to Wollongong, to take on the old rivals, the Lions.

Old Boys Day (28th July 2007 – Next Weekend)

Following the success of last year's Old Boys Day we would like to invite you down to Sydney University No. 1 once again to the most important day in the home and away calendar. This year Old Boys Day promises a great game of football with the Seniors, Reserves, Blues and Reds all playing old foes UNSW/ES and Golds playing on the Sunday v Balmain. Following the formalities, i.e. the scheduled matches, all will be rejoining to the Forest Lodge Hotel, proud club sponsor for some eight seasons. This year will be a 10 Year Reunion of the '97 double premiership and a 15 year reunion of the '92 senior flag. Relive the glory and meet the lads currently making history at SUANFC. Come along and lend your support to the club on what promises to be a very entertaining day.

A familiar tune played out for the Seniors on the weekend. Again there was no lack of competitiveness against Campbelltown but a failure to kick a winning score cost us any chance of victory. Campbelltown gradually extended their lead over the course of the game while the Lions battled manfully to match them. The boys need to find that winning formula quickly if they are to notch some more victories between now and seasons end. The Reserves finally got back on the winners list with a 2-point victory over the Blues. Determined not to do it the easy way, the boys found themselves trailing by 38 points at quarter time and scoreless. From there things began to change. The midfield started winning some clearances and the forward line duly converted. At the other end the defenders took a well earned rest. The trend continued after half-time but it wasn't until midway through the final term that the Lions hit the front. Some anxious moments followed as Campbelltown missed a couple of chances to regain the lead and it was a relieved squad who greeted the final siren as victors. The Under 18's played wonderfully well against Campbelltown and were unlucky to go down by 2 points. The boys shot out of the blocks and had their noses in front all day only to be run down in the final minutes. It was a very determined effort by the boys and augurs well for some good performances between now and the end of the season. With school holidays over and players returning from injury competition for places in the side will heat up again so lets see as many of you as possible at training in coming weeks. Next Home Game: Campbelltown, Saturday August 4. Under 18's at 2.30pm, Reserves at 4.30pm and Seniors at 6.30pm.

This weekend the winner can still hold on to hopes of a finals berth and the loser can well and truly put plans into the end of season trip. Both clubs have had there ups and downs and it is the inconsistency from both clubs that has caused the do or die clash at the Village Green on Saturday. East Coast will look to turn things around with after being shown by St George what is required to be at top side. Their skill level and teamwork was of a very high quality and showed were we have to get to be competitive in this competition. The club can only hope that a day like last Sunday was blip on the radar with no wins from four games and we can turn things around against UNSW/ES. The club always looks forward to playing on the Village Green and the hospitality that will be shown by the Bulldogs boys. The major fundraiser is coming up at the Novotel at Sydney Olympic Park on Friday August 3. For all details please call Anthony Dignan on 0433824455. The day starts at 12.30pm and includes 3 courses and drinks until 4.30pm. Special Guest on the day is the CEO of the West Coast Eagles in Trevor Nisbett. It is not to be missed.

See you at the footy.

Reigning premiers, Pennant Hills, crushed fierce rivals University of NSW/Eastern Suburbs at Ern Holmes Oval on Saturday by a mammoth 128 points, launching a blitzkrieg attack from the opening bounce. By quarter time the Demons had already opened up a seven goal lead and kept the unrelenting pressure on, finishing 25-12-162 to 4-10-34 victors over the hapless Bulldogs. The win elevated Pennant Hills to second position on the ladder and made it difficult for the Bulldogs to make the final four. Midfield dominance, a solid defence, and a sparkling attack gave Pennant Hills total control over their opposition who were unable to offer more than token resistance. The Bulldogs ace goalkicker Brad Abbott, stifled by full back Matthew McCamey, kicked only one goal after scoring ten in his previous game. Brant Jack continued his good form and bobbed up seemingly everywhere. His disposal, particularly to his forwards, was first class. In a team whose every member made a solid contribution, Peter Carey, Sebastian Parker, Matthew Carey, Lloyd Shepherd, and Laine Spencer who kicked seven goals, deserve special mention. Sixteen year old Scott Reed, signed on a scholarship with Collingwood last year, made his senior debut with Pennant Hills, and, after a nervous beginning, settled into the quicker tempo of senior football well. Scott is the son of David Reed, a quality ruckman with the Demons during the eighties.

After an enforced lay off for the seniors last week due to a power failure at Henson Park, North Shore is jumping out of its skin to get some valuable game time under its belt. This Sunday the Seniors, Reserves and Under 18 Bombers welcome Wests to Gore Hill and the U18 Wildcats make the journey down to Wollongong. The seniors will need to build on their return to form against a Wests team who are still fighting to get into the four. Its another must win for our Reserves, likewise for the Bombers and the Wildcats aren't making the long trip south just for the fun of it. This week we will welcome back our victorious RAMS players in Simon Davies, Dave Martin and Ryan Davis. Congratulations to the boys and the RAMS team on winning the final.

This week the St George Crows take on Campbelltown at Olds Park in what is an important clash for both sides. The last time these two sides met it was a fierce encounter with St George coming home with the win. Given the two clubs positions on the ladder it really looms as a must win game for both sides. It also see's former Crows coach Glen Garner return to the refurbished Olds Park club rooms which should add a bit more interest. St George are coming off last weeks 3 wins against fancied East Coast Eagles although coach Craig Tognolini felt that it wasn't a great 4 quarter display by his players and so is looking for more improvement and consistency. The good news is that we escaped the East Coast game with only a few scratches and bruises and so the injury list continues to get smaller. St George have recruited a new Club Ambassador from The Adelaide Crows. AFL Hall of Fame member, Bob Hank has agreed to help represent the St George Crows in Adelaide. It is an honour to have such a genuine legend of the game take such a strong interest in St George and show his continuing support of football in NSW.
