And then there were five...the FOXTEL Sydney AFL Ladder is starting to take shape for the finals after an exciting Round 14—UNSW/ES said goodbye to their finals chances, the Eagles are still in the hunt, the Students are making a nuisance of themselves and the Dockers are still without a win. Bring on Round 15!

The FOXTEL Sydney AFL Competition is now firmly entrenched at the 'pointy' end of the season and in Premier Division, there are five teams that that will be looking forward to a finals campaign though unfortunately there are only four spots available! The Demons and Crows are certainties, though the Bombers, Blues and Eagles are still yet to have their AFL Sydney Finals passports stamped!

After a fantastic win at Monarch Oval last Sunday, the Blues have held on to 4th position by a fingernail; Campbelltown were well served by Withers and Lees, kicking four and three goals respectively and with the help of Troy Parker and Corey Everson the Blues managed to sneak over the line by 2 points. They now face a Lions outfit who have just come off a hard fought win against the Dockers at Drummoyne Oval, Scott Dennis bagged four goals whilst Josh Tier and Luke Norton-Smith were among the best for the pride. Can the Lions produce an upset at North Dalton? Or will the Blues continue on their march towards the finals? The Blues have too much to play for and won't let this one slip. Blues by 40 points.

The match of the round this week will be played out at Gore Hill Oval between the Bombers and the Eagles—now I'm not sure there'll be any Kevin Sheedy jacket waving antics on the weekend though this match is sure to replicate the battles that Essendon and the West Coast Eagles used to have in the early 1990's! After a disappointing loss to Campbelltown last week, the Bombers are desperate to get back in the winners books, though their opposition will also be equally as hungry, the Eagles have a tough run home and need to win most matches to stay alive. Can Ben Rogers produce another stellar performance and put the Eagles into the four? Or will Fitzgerald and Meldrum inspire the Bombers to victory? The Bombers want revenge for last weeks agonising loss and will prevail in a thriller. Bombers by 7 points.

Wagener Oval this weekend will see the the UNSW/ES Bulldogs take on the might of the Western Suburbs Magpies. With both teams coming off a loss and neither of them a chance to make the finals the only thing that will be at stake is pride. UNSW/ES on paper look as though they should win, though they are firmly entrenched in a rut at the moment. Can Abbott and Phillips ensure victory for the Dogs or will the Kassem boys and the Magpies bounce back after last weeks drubbing? The Bulldogs are a better side than what they've showed in previous weeks and should account for the Magpies. Bulldogs by 14 points.

At University Oval No.1 this Sunday a danger game looms for the Demons. The crafty students brought up their best win for year with a two-point victory over the Bulldogs though the Demons are another step above. The demons are on track for back-to-back premierships this year and will not want to drop this one. Can Moran, Cain and Higgins produce the upset of the year? Or can Spencer and Carey strut their stuff? The Demons will be way too strong against a Sydney University outfit. Demons by 45 points.

After a disappointing loss last weekend, the Crows will be all fired up to seek revenge against Dockers outfit at Drummoyne Oval this Sunday. Without the brilliance of Dugmore the Crows will want to show that they're not a one man team whilst the Dockers will want to give their home crowd something to cheer about. Can Hall and Davis put on four quarters of football? Can the Ahmat and the Crows get back to their best? The Crows will win convincingly. Crows by 60 points.

RANGA EDIRIWICKRAMA (P.H)

Pennant Hill's Ranga Ediriwickrama is the Round 14 NAB Rising Nominee. Ranga, who is scholarshiped to Geelong, was a standout performer at the National Under 18's Championships where he was a member of the victorious NSW/ACT Rams side. Upon his return he has slotted easily into the Pennant Hills midfield with his hard running, disposal and poise under pressure a highlight. Ranga is a product of the Westbrook junior and is one of many players who are Sydney Junior products now making a name for themselves in the Sydney AFL.

PRESIDENTS RUMBLINGS

With winter well and truly upon us, it is good to see those attending training at good levels and that spirits are still high given the cold nights on the track. With Finals just around the corner, those that have maintained their fitness levels will no doubt be rewarded with the appointments they deserve for the time and effort they have put in over the year. It was pleasing to see so many back at Forresters on the weekend after another month of hard work on and off the field. It was also good to catch up with those we haven't seen for a while at the Association meeting the other night.

SPONSORSHIP

The NSWAFUA would like to extend our sincerest appreciation to the following Members who have provided outstanding and generous support to the Association this season:

Angus Heritage – Pacific Brands

Greg Lyons – ACP Magazines

Adam McDonald – Intercontinental Hotel

Peter Nilson – Columbia Coffee

We would also like to thank our website sponsor dd(too) and our social sponsor Forresters, who both provide valuable ongoing support to the Association.

REPRESENTATIVE UMPIRES

Congratulations are extended to Andrew Rutherford (Field) and Roy Goh (Goal), who were appointed to umpire at the NAB Under 16 National Championships in Queensland this week.

END OF SEASON FUNCTIONS

Details about Presidents Night (Tuesday 11 September) and Presentation Night (Saturday 22 September) are now available at training, on the Association website and in White Line Fever.

.This weekend we welcome the East Coast Eagles to Gore Hill for the Foxtel Match of the Round with both sides looking for a win to keep their finals hopes alive. Last weekend, Campbelltown took the points in a hard fought contest kicking truly with seconds to spare in the last quarter. The game had a few highlight and no doubt Michael Sawyer and Matthew Parker will be tuning into the Aurora channel on Wednesday night to see their high leaping antics on video. Congratulations to Patrick Brackin and Cameron Holmes who both made their senior debut's against Campbelltown. Both boys acquitted themselves very well and show the future is bright at North Shore with so many quality players coming through the ranks.

Good luck to all sides this weekend.

Go North Shore!

St George return to Drummoyne Oval after suffering loss against premiership contenders, Pennant Hills. A couple of injuries threw the attack a little off balance yet the second half saw things return to a more feel about things. It will be interesting to see how St George bounce back this week against Balmain, especially against past coach Damien Hall who left St George after just one year. August the 10th see's the Crows gala Sportsman's Lunch at the St George Masos. Tickets are $120 per head with a guest list that includes Adelaide Crows and Swans players, as well as Anthony Mundine. Comedians and Rugby league coaches will also be on the bill. For tickets please phone Andrew Cubitt on 0408 447 812, or email president@stgeorgefc.com.au

Balmain were narrowly defeated in all grades except 4th Grade last week. It is pleasing to see that despite a trying season the players are still giving 100% . Unfortunately our partner club was also unsuccessful last week against the Geelong Cats at Subiaco Oval.

Don't forget our last game of the season Comedy Night at Drummoyne Sports Club at 7pm. $40 per head for a 3 course meal. Let's go out in style! Please pay Bruce or Peter Tennant BEFORE the night.

Go the Dockers!

What a Saturday of football it promises to be at Gore Hill this Saturday. In each game if one team losses their finals dreams are over. In the Under 18's the East Coast Eagles need to win to keep its finals dreams alive. This is a fantastic effort from a team that won one game in season 2006. In reserves it is North Shore who must win to keep its final dreams alive. Up against an Eagles team that is doing all the right things in their defence of the 2006 flag, it will be a huge test. Then in the seniors the Eagles have to reverse the result from the first round and beat North Shore to stay in finals contention. It should be a great day's football. The club had its major fundraiser luncheon on Friday and the club would like to thank the wonderful support it got at the luncheon. We would especially like to thank West Coast CEO Trevor Nisbett for taking the time to speak at the luncheon. See you at the footy.

The Lions Seniors celebrated a well deserved victory last week after defeating the Dockers by 22 points. After last week's poor performance, the Lions flew out of the blocks with a 6 goal to 1 opening term. The trend continued in the 2nd quarter with the Lions leading by a commanding 42 points at half time. Wollongong dropped their intensity in the 3rd quarter and the Dockers took full advantage closing to within 15 points. Balmain continued to push for their first win of the season early in the last quarter but the Lions, determined not to let this one slip steadied and recorded a much needed win. The Reserves made it 3 on the trot with a scrappy win over Balmain. The boys couldn't repeat last week's brilliant form but importantly did enough to keep their noses in front all day. The Lions led by 21 points at half-time and things were going pretty smoothly. The Dockers had other ideas though and peppered the goals in the 2nd half with only inaccurate kicking letting us off the hook. There were some anxious moments in the last quarter but a couple of cool heads got us over the line in the end. The Under 18's returned to the winners list with a comfortable 46-point victory over the Dockers. But the final score didn't tell the full story of the day. Balmain led by 15 points at quarter time and still held a 1-point advantage at the long break. After a half-time heart to heart it was a different Lions side that emerged in the 2nd half. The boys played some great footy and slowly got on top of their opponents in the 3rd term before a dominant final quarter sealed the win. Next Social Function: Wollongong Lions Annual Ball Friday 24th August. A great opportunity for past & present players, sponsors and associates of the club to celebrate the on and off field success the club has enjoyed over many years. The tickets to the ball are moving quickly, contact Ben Broadhead by email wlions.ball@hotmail.com or mobile 0421 575 511 to secure your tickets. Remaining tickets are sold on a first come first serve basis. Next Home Game: Western Suburbs, Saturday August 18. Under 18's at 10am, Reserves at 12pm and Seniors at 2pm.

Pennant Hills now have a vice like grip on second spot on the ladder following their comprehensive 44 point thrashing of leaders St.George at Olds Park on Saturday. After Shane Demir snapped the first goal of the game for the Crows in the second minute, Pennant Hills kicked the next seven to hold a commanding 39 point lead at half time. It was only four consolation goals in the final term that made St.George's final score look a little more respectable. The final score, Pennant Hills 13-14-92 to St.George 7-6-48, further improved the Demons' percentage, which may still be a factor in determining final four positions. Peter Carey relished his move back to the wing, where he made his name, after a recent stint on the forward line. He gained many midfield possessions and directed the ball effectively to his forwards. Youngster Scott Reed added a new dimension to his game with his strong talking whilst kicking two goals in another impressive display. Relentless running and superb backing up by another youngster, Ranga Ediriwickrama, made him a valuable contributor. He was seemingly always in the right place to help a teammate under pressure and his disposal was first class. A tight defence led by Lloyd Shepherd and Aaron Crisfield strangled the Crows forwards who were handicapped by the absence of noted sharpshooters Peter Dugmore and Robbie Ahmat and a lack of quality ball from the midfield. With only four rounds remaining before the finals, Pennant Hills venture to Sydney University No.1 Oval today to play the Students who return to the Premier Division after a 13 season absence.

SUANFC would like to thank all the Old Boys who travelled from near and far to attend last week's games, those who travelled were not disappointed with 4 wins, 3 of which were at home on Oval No.1 The Reds set up the day with a good win and the Reserves followed with a win that must surely secure them a spot in finals. The seniors completely dominated the first three quarters with UNSW turning it around in the final quarter, fortunately the boys held out for a solid win. This week sees the boys face Pennant Hills is what is sure to be some tough games. Can Archie's boys continue the great progress they have made in the later half of the season - we hope so.

The Magpie Army (or should we say tragics) ventured out to the Sydney Showgrounds last Saturday to take on the East Coast Eagles in what should have been match of the round. The stadium features first class facilities and with some tweaking of the ground dimensions would make an excellent Finals venue. Unfortunately for all the aspiring finalists we succeeded in helping the Eagles find some much needed form as they take on the competition heavyweights over the next few weeks. The Magpies were right in it until half time but whatever is in the West Coast Eagles bird seed must have been sent to the East Coast as they turned on a devastating second half to completely outplay the Wests team. With the Reserves and Under 18s also outclassed it was a disappointing visit to the ground that host the happiest crowds in Sydney at Easter. This week we have to regroup and give it everything we can against the Bulldogs. Today is our last home game for the season so we need to give our supporters a strong showing and give ourselves the redemption needed after last week.

It was a dirty day for the Dogs at Uni No. 1 on Saturday in front of a big rabid crowd of drunken Sydney Uni old boys. For three quarters the Bulldogs were extremely disappointing, some very dumb, uninspiring football which let the nerds in Blue and Gold slip out to a 7 goal lead. In the last quarter the boys finally decided to play as a team, coming home like a steam train kicking 7 goals in the last quarter to almost snatch victory. The Uni boys deserved their win and had we snagged the 4 points it would have been a football injustice. Booza Phillips was the one Bulldog to have a R.H.G for the full 120 minutes. Sutto, Jimmy Keogh, and Sweet Heart all tried hard throughout the day and Super kicked 6. In what was a playoff for a finals position it was a disappointing display by the Scoobie Doo's in the first half when they were played off the park by a rampant Uni outfit. This was a far cry from the tremendous effort put in by an undermanned squad out at Penno a couple of weeks ago. After a couple of Churchillian like addresses from the coaching staff that would have made pirates blush during the main break the boys, to their credit, went out and won the second half. Captain Courageous One Bicep Broken Nose Fryer who was riding track work for Gai Waterhouse on Friday morning again led from the front. Fair dinkum there are a few others around the club who should have a look at this bloke play to learn about passion and commitment. The General Mark Lee up from the Under 18s showed why the Tigers are taking an interest with an excellent effort up forward and in the ruck and Nath Thommo came back after injury and showed his smarts on the wing. The clubs one shining light for the weekend was the excellent effort from the Under 18s who played some fantastic team footy to run out 74 point victors over a desperate Penrith/NW team, full of players with tough stickers, and keep their finals hopes alive. Chill Con Kahn was dominant in the ruck supplying his runners with first use of the footy. The backline lead by Eti, Damo and Brenton "My Name Is" Earl were solid, Little Lethal and Bruce Lee kicked 4 each. It was great to see Little Michael back from a broken collarbone suffered earlier in the season. Special mention to the two trashbag Darlings for there support during the game. The Philthies suffered their first defeat for the season at the hands of Syd Uni Blue which in the scheme of things is probably not a bad thing and will hopefully harden there resolve do go all the way. The usual suspects, Horse and Backy lead the way. The Whales also went down in a tight clash with Uni Red. Jimmy Boettiger and Mickey McAllister were the stars in a game where the bench in the last quarter resembled a scene from Saving Private Ryan with plenty of casualties and bandages in use. This week we head out to Wagner to take on West's which is always a tough day at the office. If the boys can start like they finished last week then I am sure they will bounce back to the winners list. The Bulldog
