With three rounds to go we are jam packed at the top of the table with only percentage separating the top three and the Eagles close by in fourth, though the interesting battle is between the Student and the Bombers for fifth spot!

BEHIND THE DESK

Some interesting scores from First Division on the weekend. The Holroyd-Parramatta Goannas smashed the Penrith Rams by 12 goals, the UTS Bats thumped the Nor-West Jets, the Mac Uni Warriors got over the line against Camden and the Sharks beat the Wolves for a much needed upset victory at Gwawley Oval - see below for my First Division Tips.

Out at University Oval No. 1 this Saturday afternoon, the Sydney University Students take on the Campbelltown Blues in a must-win match for Sydney Uni if they want to play finals this year. Last weekend they took it up to the Bulldogs to half-time though this week they will have to play four quarters of quality football to get the four points against the Blues. Campbelltown on the other hand are concentrating on 2009 though will want to annoy teams pressing for the finals. Can Clarebrough and Punch do it for the students or will Lees and Edwins cause an upset for the Blues?

Sydney University by 33 points.

Out at the Village Green, the UNSW/ES Bulldogs take on the St George Crows in the match of the round. With both clubs coming off good wins against teams below them on the ladder they both will be looking to continue their assault for a double chance come finals time. Can Bedwell, Holmes and Gordon continue their good form or will Jarjoura, Lavery and Abbott ensure a victory for the dogs?

UNSW/ES Bulldogs by 3 points.

Charles McLaughlin Reserve will be the venue for the clash between the East Coast Eagles and the Wollongong Lions. The Eagles are in great form after their demolition of the Dockers on the weekend whilst the Lions were obliterated by Pennant Hills. The Eagles should win this one comfortably - though more importantly can the Lions show some pride?

East Coast Eagles by 50 points,

A great clash looms between the North Shore Bombers and the Western Suburbs Magpies at Gore Hill Oval this Saturday. The Bombers all of a sudden are firm favourites for fifth spot after a great resurgence in the second half of the year whilst the Magpies are out of finals contention and will be looking to cause a couple of upsets. Can Withers and Frail beat the Bombers in an upset? Or will Pryor and Sierakowski do the job for the Bombers?

North Shore by 27 points.

This Sunday out at Drummoyle Oval, the Balmain Dockers take on ladder leaders Pennant Hills Demons. The Demons are in great form after thumping Wollongong last week and will be looking for another big win this weekend. The Dockers have shown some good form over the last few weeks though will be no match for the Demons.

Pennant Hills by 50 points.

First Division Tips:

Nor-West Jets by 8 points against Penrith

Southern Sharks by 35 against Camden

Manly- Warringah by 10 against Holroyd-Parramatta

UTS by 13 points against Macquarie University

Cheers, Syd.

NAB RISING STAR

DANIEL SPITERI (East Coast Eagles)

The Round 15 NAB Rising Star is East Coast Eagles' youngster Daniel Spiteri.

Daniel, at only 16 years of age, is in his first full season of senior football and has made the transition very easily.

Daniel reads the game well and is never afraid of taking on any player in a physical contest. At such a tender age it is already one of Daniels great strengths. Daniel is always found at the bottom of packs and loves working as an inside on-baller. He starts up any attacking raid for the Eagles by setting up the runners in the Eagles team.

He has been rewarded with his good form with selection in the NSW/ACT Rams under 18 side while they were playing against the Division One teams. He was also outstanding in the last game against South Australia having the most possessions of any player for the Rams. Daniel still has another year to go in the Rams program.

Daniel has come a long way since starting in the Challenge Cup last season and he will only continue to improve.

The Eagles look forward to Daniel being part of the Eagles team for many years to come.

BRETT FOSTER (Camden Cats)

WHICH ARE YOU?

*Are you the active member
That kind that would be missed
Or are you just contented
Your name was on the list*

*Do you attend the meetings
And mingle with the flock
Or do you just stay at home
And criticise and knock*

*Do you take active part
To help the work along
Or are you satisfied to be
The kind that just belong*

*Do you push the cause along
And make things really tick
Or leave the work to just a few
And talk about the clique*

*Think this question over
You know right from wrong
Are you an active member
Or do you just belong*

Brett "Beavis" Foster from the Camden Cats is the Round 16 Volunteer of the Week.

Five years ago, Beavis turned up to training wanting to get fit and help out. He was too young, short and thin to play so instead the Club gave him the Boundary Umpire job. He was recognised for his hard work and efforts in being awarded the South Coast medal as best first year Boundary Umpire.

Beavis is willing to do anything you ask him to do. At training he helps set up the hats, gets the gear out and helps clean up. On game days he now does the goal umpire duties, fills water bottles, and attempts motivational speeches to individual players and the coach. He is an incredible source of historical results and if your team loses on Friday night, look out for the Beavis attack on Saturday.

Beavis provides great support to the team in many ways, and is extremely loyal to the club. His willingness to do just about anything despite his disability makes him truly a Camden club champion.

HELP US TACKLE CANCER

AFL Sydney will be getting behind the 'Call to Arms' initiative which supports the Cancer Council.

'Call To Arms' provides local sporting communities with the opportunity to raise funds for all men facing cancer and help the men within your community think about what they can do to prevent cancer.

By registering your club and by asking players to don a yellow armband, you will help prevent, detect and treat cancers in men

As a club you are encouraged to partake in this initiative by visiting the 'Call to Arms' link below and registering your club.

Remember one in two men will be diagnosed with cancer by the age of 85.

It could be you, or it could be your best mate.

So register now at www.calltoarms.com.au

HEALTH AWARENESS ROUND—AUGUST 9 & 10

BEHIND THE WHISTLE

In an effort to achieve consistency in decision-making, there is an emphasis on understanding the "spirit of the laws" (i.e. the philosophies underlying the laws) and officiating according to the seven spirit of the laws.

Marking Contests

"The player whose sole objective is to contest a mark shall be permitted to do so."

Where there is incidental contact in a marking contest when the ball is the sole objective (eyes on the ball), play on will result.

When a player leaps early, the attempt must be realistic (i.e. he/she must be able to touch the ball).

The Dogs travelled to Sydney University Oval Number 1, desperate to turn around their poor performance from the previous round's effort against North Shore. The pressure on the Dogs was clearly evident prior to the game, with coach Terry Mudge making numerous heartfelt and impassioned pleas. At one stage, a visibly upset Mudge looked certain to resort to violence, as his demands appeared to be falling on deaf ears. Fortunately, however, the elderly ladies in the canteen eventually did re-stock the pie warmer and a satisfied Mudge could set his mind to the task of taking on a determined Sydney Uni outfit. The first half was a very tight contest, with neither side giving an inch. With an inaccuracy rate as high as a Terry Mudge cholesterol count, the Dogs were their own worst enemy. The second half, however, was all the Dogs, kicking away to register an 11 goal win. Also clearly relieved about the resolution of the pie warmer incident, Leigh Lavery was amongst the best for the Dogs, ably supported by Luke Jarjoura and Dane "I've got a Cramp-e" Rampe.

In club news, David Coupe's haircut continues to slowly improve and it now looks like getting back to being presentable for the Dogs' round 17 clash with Campbelltown.

The reserves faced a dangerous game against a Sydney Uni side keen notch a win against a top side leading into the finals. The first quarter was an even affair with only 3 points separating the sides at the first break. Harry Lee was providing plenty of rebound from the backline with Kieren Emery presenting strongly up forward in his senior debut. The second quarter saw the bulldogs pull away with the midfield of the 3 dwarves, Roberts, Coen, and Linehan giving the forwards first use. Male models Jez Kiel and Ed Carroll were providing not only sultry good looks, but also strong targets through the middle and O'Brien was beginning to cause problems for the Sydney Uni defence. Strong running and delivery saw the Bulldogs extend their lead in the third quarter and held a comfortable 32 point lead at the final change. The last quarter saw Sydney Uni begin strongly and with first use from the centre quickly scored 3 unanswered goals to put the pressure right back on the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs could have closed the game on many occasions but poor conversion kept Sydney Uni in the game. With three more quick goals to Sydney Uni there was less than a kick in it with the Bulldogs having to call on everything they had to hold off the fast finishing Uni side. Special mention to Anthony Tomasiello for his courageous efforts running back with the flight of the ball. In the end the Bulldogs did well to get away with the win and will look forward to an improved effort against St George at the VG this week. Best for the Bulldogs were Linehan, Lee, Emery, Roberts, Coen, and Dowling.

The U18's hosted Pennant Hills at home on Sunday morning and were lucky enough to be fielding one of their strongest sides for the year to date. With a 5 man bench there was to be a lot of work for team runner Steve "Chubbs" Haberley, who was particularly upset with the fact he was slower and more portly than the opposition runner for the 15th consecutive week. The boys started strongly with a 6.5 to 1.1 opening quarter and didn't look back from there, eventually running out convincing 184 point winners. The pleasing aspect being the fact they kept Penno to just 8 points with a fantastic defensive effort. Nick Whitehead had his best performance for the year with 6 goals from a half forward flank and Little Lethal ended up with 9 from full forward. The Dogs have a much bigger challenge next week hosting the Southern Sharks who have been in great form in recent weeks

The Bulldogs would like to thank their major sponsor, The Doncaster Hotel; "The Doncaster - our prices are so reasonable, even Luffy drinks here".

Sydney footy under lights turned out to be a belter at University Oval last week. With 2nd Division and U18's taking on the strong Moorebank Sports Magpies and Resssies and Seniors taking on the Camden Cats a strong 500 crowd turned out on a chilly Sydney evening.

With the heaters turned up to full, the BBQ pumping out plenty of HANS Smallgoods food and the CUB product flowing, the Old Boys Premiership reunion got underway with some old heads having a run in 2nd Division at midday. The likes of Worker hobbling along getting it onto Kizza and Stupid then hitting Graetzy on a chest mark lead was well worth the inter-staters flying into town. After a good first quarter when spirits were high until the strong Magpies kicked into gear and ran away with a strong win.

Heading into the U18's match against a spirited Magpies, the Old Boys could then take up what they do best - sitting on the hill with a few cold beviies talking war stories of old when they provided SFA history in winning the 98, 99 and 00 Premiership Three-Peat. The U18's put in an average performance drifting away from the game plan and commitment at the ball to get away with a win over the young Magpies side.

Resssies took the park at 4pm to take on the Cats side and straight away put the game into place by running the ball smoothly through the middle with Salmon and into the forward line eventually running out 183 point winners and keeping the Cats to a solitary point.

As the chilly Sydney evening kicked in, Seniors took to the park to continue their finals campaign and were shown straight away that this was not going to be a walk over as per the previous meeting when we ran out 132 point winners over the Cats. The Cats played some quality football in the first half and went to the main break leading by 4 goals and in a commanding position. With finals chances slipping away it took some early quality plays to get the side to kick into gear. With Astro clearing the ball out of the backline well and Whytey and Hamma tidying up the middle we were able to put some points on the board and settle the game into a win.

This weeks game against UTS looms as the bog one with the 4th and final position coming down to the wire with the Goannas.

St George venture to Village Green today for the top three battle with UNSW. It should be a great game weather permitting and one worthy of match of the round. Both sides are in winning form and it could well end up being a battle of defences that see's the victor. The Crows have been experimenting with various combinations towards the end of the season and seem to have developed a few options up forward.

80th ANNIVERSARY DINNER

St George are celebrating their 80th Anniversary this year with a party at St George Leagues club next Saturday night. Special commemorative jumpers have been designed to honour the red and white years of the club, and these will be auctioned on the night. Welcome to the last home fixtures of the year. Yes it might seem to have come around quickly but we have finals breathing down our neck again.

Although the lads in the Seniors and Reserves were unable to get the points last week (the Blues continue to perform exceptionally) what a wonderful day it was for all of the past players and supporters who attended the day and night. Players from 1959 to 2008 were present in a show of the club's enduring strength.

Today we welcome Campbelltown and Manly and we look forward to some great footy from all sides.

The Rams suffered an 80 point defeat at the hands of Holroyd-Parramatta at Greygums Oval last Saturday. After booting the first goal of the game, the Goannas proved to be far too strong, although the final scoreline might have been a little flattering to the visitors, with Penrith booting six straight behinds in the final term. 16 year-old Tom McNamara continued his excellent form to be the Rams best.

Reserve Grade were no match for their opponents despite battling hard, going down by a big margin despite a competitive first quarter.

The U/18's broke their losing streak with a hard fought 8 point win over East Coast Eagles. In a tight tussle, the Rams were headed late on before two goals to Josh Anasis, one a spectacular banana kicked set shot from the boundary line, sealed the win.

This week sees the local derby against the Nor West Jets out at Bensons Lane in what will be the usual hard fought game. The Rams will be looking for their fourth win of the season and sixth spot on the ladder.

A reminder to all players and supporters about our after match function at the Red Cow Inn from 6.30pm. Please make the effort to get back there and support our major sponsor, even if it's just for a short time.

TODAY the Nor-West Jets welcome our arch-rivals Penrith to Bensons Lane for what we expect will be two competitive games of football, and we invite the Rams' players and supporters to join us in the clubrooms and at RG McGees after the games for a few drinks.

Last week, the Jets' seniors produced another gallant performance against a competition powerhouse before going down to the University of Technology Sydney by 91 points at Trumper Park, Paddington.

Despite being forced to make 10 changes from the team that went down to the Southern Sharks two weeks ago, the Jets took the challenge up to the ladder leaders, trailing by just 26 points midway through the third quarter before the Bats put the foot down and powered away to a 17.16 118 to 4.3 27 victory.

UTS kicked the last 10 goals of the match as the gallant Jets simply ran out of legs against an opponent that is charging towards another significant finals campaign.

Nick Milkins was a fine contributor in his 100th match for the Jets, contesting well all day and getting his share of the footy, while Andrew Travers was easily the Jets' best player around the ground and in the ruck after shrugging off an injury riddled season.

Casey Wenselowski worked hard all day and won plenty of the ball and Peter Kyle battled hard against dominant full forward Andrew Thain, who still kicked eight goals but was limited in his opportunities after piling on 17 against the Jets earlier in the year.

Aaron Bayne was another to do well in defence, while Jack Pascoe was solid and Daniel Guthridge, Steve Davidson, Aaron Whiles, Joe Munro and Chris Moore all tried hard.

Hopefully the Jets can show the same vigour and determination today, a desire that has been sadly lacking in the two previous clashes with the Rams this season.

THE reserves need to regroup quickly after turning in easily their worst performance of the season to suffer a 142-point caning from the ladder leaders.

The Jets were never in the match as the Bats kicked a consistent 5.6, 5.6, 5.7 and 5.6 in the four quarters to finish with a powerful 20.25 145 to 0.3 3 belting of an extremely disappointing blue and white brigade.

Jesse Bray produced an excellent performance for the Jets, as did Steve Staszek, while Matt Brophy was good in his return from a long injury layoff and David Beacroft and Ben Weatherhead worked hard, but they had few mates in a match where the only positive was the fact the Jets had the necessary commitment to field a team.

Any win is a good win and that was the way it was last weekend against Campbelltown. The boys were a bit rusty after the weeks break, also not helped by the far to regular closure of Gore Hill due to some rain which meant training was disrupted.

The reality is that this weekend we play our first "finals" match against Wests who, along with Sydney Uni, are our main rivals contesting to take 5th spot. We drop this one and we are going to make it really hard for ourselves and you can bet that the last thing Wests want is to see North Shore in the finals again.

The good news is that we are not far off having our full side on the paddock, with only regular senior players Todd Bajcic and Cam Holmes on the injury list. These guys, plus the return of Dave Conway, Jamie O'Dell and Ash Naylor from injury will strengthen the reserves team this weekend and place much needed pressure on the seniors to perform.

Regretfully the reserves had a walk over against Campbelltown last week so the boys will be champing at the bit to play well against Wests. Believe it or not we are still an outside chance to make the finals.

Good wins to both the Bears and the Bombers see them retain their hold on positions in the final five.

Go North Shore!

The dreams of every sports fan were realised on Saturday Night where patrons of the club were treated to mouth watering equine match-ups of the calibre of Phar Lap v Kingston Town, Tulloch v Archer, Might and Power v Saintly and Ocatgonal v Lord of the Land.

That's right, the 1st annual Western Suburbs Mouse Cup was held at the Football Club and all who attended were treated to nail biting races of the highest quality with the highlight being race two, the Sprinters Cup, where more than two mice actually left their boxes.

Massive thanks to Angus Dowdle, Matthew Cullen and Matt Day from Sky Sports who's magnificently mellifluous commentary kept the punters happy all night.

On the football field Western Suburbs slim finals hopes took another hit with a narrow loss to St George. All hope now rests on this week's big clash against North Shore where a win is a must for the Club to maintain any hope of playing finals football this year.

The Under 18's are still in with a chance of featuring in September and also need a big win this week.

Go the Magpies.

Wests we can.

The Sharks today travel out to Camden for the first time in many years and are looking forward to making the trip after a great win against Manly last weekend. In the top grade the game was a great contest early with Manly and the Sharks both running the ball at all costs. Despite Manly holding a slight advantage for all of the first half, the Sharks showed great pressure all day to eventually run out winners by 33 points. The winner of the Old Boys Day / Jimmy Tremain Memorial shield was Rookie Rhys Davis who played his best game for the club. Unfortunately for the club the reserves were not able to complete the double although they tried all day - Manly winning by a few kicks and were the better side in what was a tough encounter and leave the reserves needing a tough road home to the finals. In what was a great day for the club the Southern Sydney Power had a day out against Manly Winning by a large margin and stamping themselves as genuine contenders for the finals race. The Power ran the ball as well as they have all season and looked unstoppable going forward. They do however face the toughest of all tests in the Challenge cup this Sunday with East Sydney at the Village Green. I encourage all Sharks Players and supporters to go along and see what will be a great game of footy.

The other game at Gwawley oval last weekend was the annual old boys / Jimmy Tremain game, great to see so many past players come along to watch the Tremain Terriers look to defend there unbeaten run against the Wato's Warhorses. Unfortunately the Golden Boot of Trent Chatterton was missing in 2008 and the War Horses had a big win. Congratulations to Mark Bussing, winner of the Jimmy Tremain Medal.

Thanks also to all that attended the annual trivia night and thanks especially to Byron Bay Breweries for there support of the day.

On to today, with several key players still missing and players fighting to keep there spots it should provide for an entertaining clash with Camden. We look forward to a hard game and a couple of beers afterwards with the cats players and supporters.

Camden's first game under lights brought about some mixed results for the Sydney AFL newcomers. Perfect football conditions greeted the boys from the west but unfortunately the reserves found the opposition too tough to handle. The well drilled Mac Uni outfit got off to a flyer, giving the Cats a hint that they were in for a long evening. Despite the fact Camden only scored one point, they were able to move the ball into the forward fifty a number of times but without a pronounced full forward option, they just couldn't capitalise. Spoodge gave his usual 110% throughout the game and was assisted well this week by big men Cosmo Krema and Trev Kennedy. Matt Garland, Pedro and the returning Glen Hunt also put in great efforts for Camden.

The first grade game could only be described as a game of two halves where the Cats went in with a 'nothing to lose' attitude against an opposition that had blasted them off the park in their previous two encounters. The first quarter must have been a shock to the home team and the big crowd there for the Mac Uni 'Old Boys Day' as Camden took an early lead in the game. Toughness for the footy and some great team play saw Camden take a 4 goal lead into half time. But with Mac Uni on the ropes, the Cats failed to deliver the knockout blow in the third quarter and the Warriors got themselves back into the game. The tough tackling, great ball movement and relentless pressure the Cats had shown in the first half was missing through the second half with the exception of a few passages of play. Dan Graham and Mark Goldsbrough were phenomenal for Camden and were well supported by Ben Laid and Dan Coleman down back. A positive for the Cats was the return of Birdman, kicking two goals and taking some great grabs in his first game back after an ankle injury.

It has been a great turn around for Camden since the beginning of the season but it would be an understatement to say that it was disappointing to lose the game last Saturday night. It would be great to finish the season on a positive and take some momentum into our second season in the Sydney First Division competition, but to do this we have to be able to play a full four quarters and be able to finish off good football teams.

It was a disastrous day for the Seniors at Ern Holmes Oval last Saturday after being obliterated by Pennant Hills. We were non-competitive from the outset in our worst performance in almost 4 years in the Premier League. Possibly still bearing the scars from the previous week's fadeout we simply had no answer for the Demon's teamwork and run and were taught a football lesson. A marked lift in enthusiasm is required over coming weeks if we are to gain some positives from the season.

The Reserves were comprehensively beaten by Pennant Hills last Saturday proving we still have much work to do to be competitive against the good sides in the competition. After showing some fight in the 1st quarter the Demons blew the game open from then on running the Lions off their feet. The result was a lesson for the boys and slammed home the need for hard work by all on the training track to get results on the weekend.

The Under 18's provided the highlight of an otherwise bleak day with a gutsy win over the strong Pennant Hills combination. With their season well and truly on the line the boys responded with a courageous effort leading from the outset and toughing it out when challenged in the second half. It was very pleasing to see some of the younger members of the side stepping up and doing their bit for the team. More of the same is needed today against the Eagles.

Next Social Function: - Lions Trivia Night, Friday September 12. Please mark the date in your diaries. More details to follow.

Next Home Game: Saturday August 23 v Campbelltown

Last weekend Balmain Dockers played the powerful East Coast line up at Drummoyne on a fantastic winter's afternoon. East Coast started well and continued to play excellent footy for the rest of the day. Balmin let themselves down badly by conceding far too many 50 m penalties. Remember guys the man in white, (or orange), is always right!

It was fantastic to see so many people come back to the Drummoyne Sports Club afterwards. With our new Bistro operating at full capacity, it was extremely pleasing to see over 150 people from both teams enjoying the Western Derby on the big screen. Congratulations to our partner club the Fremantle Dockers on their second Derby win for the year and Matthew Pavlich for winning the Ross Glendenning Medal for the best player on the ground.

On Friday Night around 200 people attended our annual Dinner with the Dockers which was conducted at the Drummoyne Sports Club. Chalice Bridge wines showcased their fantastic products on the night. The purple haze was most evident all around the club till late with Achtung Baby sending out some great sounds at the end of the dinner. The support of Fremantle Football Club and their Community Development Manager David Crute and new CEO Steve Rosich is fantastic. We encourage anyone who is thinking of playing at a higher level or purely looking for a change of club to join us the Balmain Dockers in 2009.

Balmain Dockers are also hosting the Sydney AFL Finals at Henson Park this year. We are looking for volunteers to assist in this important venture. Anyone who can assist on the canteen, scoreboard or barbecue please contact Peter Adams ASAP.

Today we welcome Pennant Hills to Drummoyne Oval. Last season brought a thriller to the oval with the Demons narrow winners. With greater discipline and commitment, we can reverse that close result! Let's send them into a Purple Storm!

Pennant Hills continued their two game scoring rampage at Ern Holmes Oval on Saturday, this time at Wollongong's expense. After crushing Campbelltown by 167 points in their previous game, the Demons disposed of last-placed Wollongong by 178 points, kicking 31-24-210 to 5-2-32 and retain top spot on the ladder on percentages.

The signs quickly became ominous for the Lions as Pennant Hills began the game brilliantly scoring 8-7 to 1-0 by quarter time. Onballers Scott Reed, Blake McGrath, Luke Bilbe, Alex Goodall, Charlie Richardson and Brant Jack controlled play to such an extent the ball seldom went into the Wollongong forward zone and their defence was under constant pressure.

Capitalising on this dominance, the Demons' forwards were able to feast on a constant supply of accurate passes providing an abundance of goal scoring opportunities. Laine Spencer chimed in with six goals, Nick Campbell kicked five, while the consistent Scott Myers and Reed each nailed four. Reed also provided a game highlight when, in the first quarter, he pulled down a spectacular soaring high mark, sitting astride the shoulders of his opponents.

Others to do well were Bart Mill, Matthew Carey, Aaron Crisfield and Josh Duncan in a very even side.

Saturday saw the last game at Ern Holmes Oval for club legend John "Hound" Rakic who, at 41 years of age, played his 200th game for Pennant Hills, this time in second division against Manly-Warringah. His team had a good win and Rakic, who holds a commanding lead in the second division season's goalkicking tally, is looking for another premiership to coincide with his end-of-season retirement.

The Demons play today at picturesque Drummoyne Oval against second-last placed Balmain Dockers, the third last game before the finals.
