Last weekend proved the Sydney AFL competition is wide open and there'll be no easy games for clubs this year.

Some shock results certainly did raise some eyebrows and turn some heads!

Without sounding like Collingwood President and Channel Nine CEO Eddie McGuire, though what a weekend in football! Sensational weather and sensational football were the order of the day and boy did the competition deliver!

In a historic day for Sydney University, a club that were written off as they were apparently just making up the numbers, played some brilliant team football to come within a whisker of beating the best side in the competition, though to the Eagles credit they showed excellent composure to outwit the students in the last quarter with some individual brilliance by goalsnek Ben Rogers and telling ruck work by Gus Seebeck.

Out at Gore Hill Oval, we saw the Demons take on the Bombers and in tough encounter North Shore proved to be too strong at home. Their six goal first quarter started off proceedings and the Demons couldn't quite peg back the margin; Ryan Meldrum and Dale Fitzgerald among the best in a rejuvenated North Shore outfit in 2007.

On a marvellous Sunday afternoon out at the Village Green, UNSW notched up their second win of the year with an upset victory over an shell shocked St.George outfit, the ladder leaders prior to Round 4 turned it on in the last quarter, though it proved to be too late with UNSW running out winners by 13 points; former Swan Troy Luff creating many forward thrusts and repelling the attacks from the Crows midfield.

In another close game out at Wagener Oval we saw the Magpies just pip the Lions by 12 points. After a shaky start the Lions clawed themselves back into the contest though couldn't provide the consistent football that was needed - Mark Egan and Medair Kassem proved a little too strong for the Lions.

Out at Drummoyne Oval, the Blues proved that they are one of the sides to watch out for with another impressive display over the Dockers, eventually running out easy victors by ten goals; Shanan Kershaw and Jason Fleming looking the goods for the Blues.

Volunteer of the Week: A new edition to our record to recognise the fantastic efforts of our volunteers who make sure Sydney Football runs as smoothly as possible. This weeks we thank Kevin Meade from the Balmain Dockers.

Hope to see you at the footy.

RAMS hold Cannons' fire

The NSW/ACT RAMS have continued their outstanding lead-up to this year's Under-18 National Championships by downing the form team of the TAC Cup competition. In their first of three TAC Cup clashes for the year, the RAMS came from behind to beat the Calder Cannons by eight points in Melbourne on Saturday, winning 11.12 (78) to 10.11 (71).

The RAMS' victory, which came on the back of a convincing 51-point drubbing of Tasmania last month, sounds a warning to their division two rivals ahead of the national titles in late June.

Key forward Taylor Walker booted six goals to spearhead the visitors' win as the RAMS fought back from a 13-point deficit at the long break to inflict the Cannons' first loss of the season.

Captain Craig Bird booted three goals while fellow midfielder Ranga Ediriwickrama was also superb.

RAMS coach Danny Stevens said his side would take plenty out of the win.

"The more games that we win leading up to the nationals the better, but having said that it's pointless unless we can perform at that level come the national championships," Stevens said.

"Calder had been going out and blowing teams away early in their games, and we played good, tight footy and didn't let them get away early on."

Stevens said the RAMS' win would make some footy pundits sit up and take note, given the Cannons went into the clash with a 4-0 record.

"It's the boilover of the year, I guess. It was a big effort," he said.

"It's probably got people starting to talk a bit ... a few eyes would've opened up."

NSW/ACT's win was all the more commendable given some players were forced to endure a long car trip to Melbourne the day before the game.

"That's just part and parcel of NSW footy, really," Stevens said.

"It's all about the way the kids conduct and prepare themselves."

The RAMS' clash was one-half of a double-header at Coburg City Oval on Saturday. In the other match, Queensland – another division two contender at this year's Under-18 National Championships – beat the Eastern Ranges by 15 points.

The NSW/ACT RAMS play their next TAC Cup against the Murray Bushrangers at Lavington on May 20.

NSW-ACT 3.4 5.7 9.9 11.12 (78)

CALDER 2.3 7.8 8.9 10.11 (71)

ANDREW WILD(Sydney Uni)

The 3rd Rising Star nomination for 2007 is Andrew Wild from Sydney University. Andrew hails from the Wagga region having played some early football for the Mangoplagh Cookadina United Eastlakes Goannas. He was a student at St Ignatius College Riverview Sydney and has played in their U/18s for the last two seasons. In 2006 Andrew was a U 18 NSW/ACT Ram. This year after finishing school and gaining entry to a Bachelor of Economics Andrew followed in the footsteps of his father (a former SUANFC player and University of Sydney Sporting Blue Winner) and was the recipient of a Sydney University Australian Football scholarship (available to a select number of those who are studying and play for Sydney University). The scholarship includes access to the Uni gym and pool facilities, strength and conditioning specialists (along with other scholarship holders and the broader SUANFC Development Squad group) as well as dieticians and course/career mentoring. After minor injuries interrupted his pre-season Andrew played Reserves for Sydney University in the first round and immediately impressed the coaching staff with a polished display. Since then he has played for the Seniors and has shown that despite his youth he has more than enough skill for that level. As part of a very young Sydney University side, many of whom have never played a season together before Andrew's performances are improving week to week. At 190cm and with pace to burn Andrew can play a variety of positions but he put in a particularly stellar performance up forward against the East Coast Eagles last Saturday kicking 5 goals.

Rd 1 - Matt Edwins (Campbelltown)

Rd 3 - Ben Haberley (St George)

VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK– KEVIN MEADE (Balmain Dockers)

To celebrate community involvement and the hard work our club people do every week the Sydney AFL has introduced the 'Volunteer of the Week'. This gives our supporters a chance to read about the people who, week in week out, work tirelessly for the club that they love. It also gives clubs the chance to publicly thank them for their tireless efforts.

Our Volunteer of the week for Round 5 is Kevin Meade. Being the President of a football club is a tough job in itself, though in between organising the Dockers 2nd Division team, it's reserves and also the senior team he is the assistant coach of the Under 18's team!

Prior to joining the Dockers, Kevin was recognised as one of the best umpires in NSW and was a former secretary of the NSW Australian Football Umpires Association and developed excellent relationships with all clubs.

The Sydney AFL congratulates and thanks Kevin Meade for his services to Sydney Football and richly deserves his nomination for volunteer of the week.

History of the NSWAFUA

The initial NSWAFU senior grade grand final was umpired by G. Hallett in 1903. This was followed by Rev Hicks the following year, who was to start a long alliance between the Clergy and umpiring in Sydney. During the late 1960's and early 1970's the Association had both a Baptist Minister and a Catholic Priest umpiring at the same time! Since then there have been a number of clergy of different denominations officiate with the Association. Over the past seventy five years, the Association has also been involved in the social scene. During the 1970's the Umpires Ball was a highlight of the local football calendar, with plenty of participation from local clubs. It was at this time that the Association decided it should endeavour to obtain premises and become a licensed club. To this end, steps were taken to incorporate the Association as a company, which finally occurred on March 16, 1976. This made the Association the first incorporated Umpires Association in Australia. However, by this time much had changed in both the real estate and club scene in Sydney, and the original plans for a club were put aside. On March 4, 1991 the Association changed its structure to become an incorporated body under the Associations Incorporation Act of NSW. The NSWAFUA has held meetings in many locations over the years. These have included sports clubs, ex-service clubs, town halls, hotel rooms, League rooms and at football ovals. Training was not officially organised until 1965, and has since been conducted in many areas around Sydney - from open parkland and university grounds, to athletics clubs and football ovals. Venues have included Erskenville Oval, Fraser Park, Moore Park, Picken Oval, E. S. Marks Field, Alexandria Park, Rotary Field, Trumper Park, Chatswood Oval and Wyatt Park. In 1994, after many years as 'gypsies', the Association finally found a home for both training and meetings at Reg Bartley Oval, Rushcutters Bay. This permanent base has contributed to the strength and long term sustainability of the Association.

Centenary club milestones

The NSWAFUA currently has a number of running Members who have umpired in excess of 100 senior grade games in Sydney. Ken Ray (Goal) is nearing his 350th senior game; Frank Kalayzich (Field) should also reach 350 senior games this year; and Shane McSpeerin will reach the most senior games umpired by a Boundary Umpire (268) in the next few rounds. Joining the centenary club is Peter Nilson (Goal), who umpired his 100th senior game in Round 4. A couple of other Goal Umpires - Con Tsonis and Sergio Villagra - will also be umpiring their 100th senior games in weeks to come.

The St George Crows were disappointing last week and suffered their first loss for 2007. There can be no excuses and all credit must go to UNSW for the way they attacked the ball and outplayed the Crows. St George certainly had their chances at various parts of the game but failed to make the necessary score board pressure needed to win the game. The week's home game against the Balmain Dockers should be interesting. Balmain have been showing some good signs over the past couple of weeks, and with some former Crow players changing loyalties to the Dockers and visa versa it promises to be a very competitive clash. St Georges Reserve side had another win last week making it 3 victories from 4 starts, which in itself demonstrates the improvement the club has made over the summer break to increase the depth of players available for selection. Promotion to the first grade is something that is now being earned both on and off the track. Our Under 187's side play today after having the bye last week. The U18's lost their last game against North Shore at Henson Oval and so they are looking to bounce back in the best possible way today.

This week North Shore head into Magpie territory taking on Kev's boys from Western Suburbs at Wagener Oval. Last weekend we were host to Pennant Hills on "Super Saturday" at Gore Hill where we played four games at Gore Hill for the first time. The Wildcats had a good win over the East Coast Eagles in the first game and Pennant Hills then taught the U18's and Reserves a lesson with big wins. In the main game, North Shore were able to keep ahead of Penno taking out the seniors by 26 points.

Back to Bears Day

Our next major club function is "Back to Bears Day" on Saturday 2nd June at Gore Hill. This is our yearly past players day and the senior side will return to the Bears and wear a special jumper for the day. All of the special jumpers will be available to purchase after the game and we invite all past players down to enjoy what will be a great day at Gore Hill against Campbelltown.

The Magpies managed to hold out a fast finishing Wollongong team last week to take the points and keep in touch with the top four. However the pressure is really on today against the perennial strength of North Shore. A win is vital as the leading teams can put a space between themselves and the rest of the competition following today's games. Reserves fought on well in the second half last week to outscore Wollongong but they found out the hard way that you can't afford to give starts. They must start well to give them a chance today. Under 18s again battled without a full compliment of players. Injuries and a frustrating junior draw left us short but we could not be any prouder of their efforts over the past two weeks. Next week is our SUPER MAGPIE SATURDAY fixture at Henson Park. Auskick Magpies start the day at 8.00 am followed by Under 9, 10, 11, 12s, with the Under 18s at 2.30pm, Reserves 4.30pm and the big First grade clash against Campbelltown at 6.30pm. Following the days proceedings all players, officials and supporters of both clubs are invited back to WESTS AUSSIE RULES CLUB at 40 Hampton St Croydon Park for after match refreshments and to watch the FA CUP FINAL on the giant screen from midnight. ALL welcome.

This week the Balmain Dockers travel to the wide expanse of Olds Park. The coldest venue in Sydney Football. After a much improved performance last week the Dockers are looking forward to this match enormously. It gives both teams a chance to get back on target and return to the winning list. The Dockers will be boosted by the inclusion of a number of new players and are certain to rise to the occasion on the large park. The Dockers are ready to strike. This week may well be the turning point! Watch out Crows!

Definitely a case of the one that got away for Seniors against the Magpies. Kicking with the aid of the breeze, inexplicably the Lions were goalless and 25 points down at quarter time. The boys slowly but surely worked their way into over the next 2 quarters to trail by just 2 points at the last change. Then another lapse and a 4 goal burst from Wests effectively snuffed out our chances. Some really positive signs in the last 2 weeks but now we desperately need a win. The Reserves got back on the winners list with an at times scrappy 25-point victory. With several players (not to mention the coach) returning to the side from injury, suspension and semi-retirement the 2's will be looking to put together some more consistent form in coming weeks. The Under 18's had a commanding victory over a depleted Wests outfit and need to work hard and stay switched on for this weeks game against the Eagles. With a 2-2 record, this game is crucial. This week we welcome the East Coast Eagles for our 2nd night match of the season. Lions and Eagles supporters are welcome to attend the post match presentations in the grandstand. Canteen and Bar open till late. Next Home Game: North Shore, Saturday May 19. Under 18's at 10am, Reserves at 12pm and Seniors at 2pm. Next Social Function: The famous $1000 Draw will be held at the NDP Clubrooms on Saturday May 19. Tickets: $25 (attending), $20 (absent), $40 for 2 (if 2nd person non club member). Last week we made the trip to Drummoyne to enjoy the Dockers hospitality. In what was a good day for the Blues we were able to come away with 3 good wins which was good especially for the Reserves and Under 18's as it was their first for the year Hopefully there will be more to come. Congratulations to Jason Fleming, Mark Skuse, Mat Withers, Chris Lees and Ed Wilson on their selection in the Rep Squad. It is a just reward for not only these players but the club as a whole. Today we take on the Bulldogs at their kennel knowing that only a 100% effort will get us the four points.

On a lovely summers day... in May, gotta love global warming! We hosted St George for a Sunday sesh at the VG. With the cameras rolling in anticipation for the big clash the Bulldogs turned it on playing some of the best footy they have played this year, in a disciplined performance coming out the victors by a bit over three goals. Desert Head Nicks has really got the boys firing and playing as group. Defence was the cornerstone for the win, the Pepper Spray and Dr Dre Pech doing excellent blanketing jobs on the dangerous crowd forwards – whilst the Duffman and Double D provided plenty of run. Forra, Two Dads, Kef and Gus 'Sweetheart' Darling started the team off through the middle with The Coupe finishing off up forward and Ryan 'Gary' Pert snapping up any crumbs that fell his way. It didn't all go the Bulldogs way on Sunday with the two in a form slump crashing to their second loss in a row. St George were more skillful with how they used the ball and simply wanted it more. Jules Ryan gave plenty up forward knocking in a few Shannon Nolls for the cause, Meggsy tried valiantly through the guts and Higgo as he always does Mothed it up all over the place. The Philthies continued on there merry way racking up a 56 point victory to maintain there unbeaten record. Holmbooy and Horse Bantof were the best with Philthy showing the benefits of his big pre-season bagging another lazy 6. What can I say about the moths? They lead all day against the Dockers only to go down by 1 point to a goal kicked after the siren. Boys, if you keep listening the wise words of the Sherminator I am sure that a win is just around the corner. Herman the German kicked 4 and was BOG, closely followed by Grub Alexander. The Under 18s checked out the Lane Cove Tunnel (not much change out of $20 in tolls, Kenny can you have a chat to Morris) on there way out to the Hills District to take on ECE. Despite being left in the lurch by their coach, the boys put in a terrific effort to sneak home by 3 points in a high class affair. Sammy Rutland and Tommy Atallah controlled the midfield and Alex Henderson was Ryan O'Keffe like at half forward. Little Lethal chipped in with another 4 goals. On the social scene our Past Players day will be held on the Saturday the 19th May at the VG. The day incorporates a reunion for the 2002 SFL and SFA premierships teams. We want to make this day bigger than Costello's tax cuts. To any old Bulldogs and Whales please come down to the "G" for a frothie and enjoy watching the current team in action. This week the Dogs take on Campbelltown in a big clash at the "G". Victory could see us slip into the top 4. Woof Woof. The Bulldog

Congratulations to Matthew Arbon who played his 100th first grade game against Sydney Uni last weekend. 100 first grade games is a wonderful achievement for any player and the club hopes the tough, dependable back man can play 100 more for the club. It was also pleasing to see just reward for our seven senior players who were named in the Sydney AFL Representative squad during the week. Congratulations to Jon Vlatko, Jason Coulloupas, Luke Stanford, Blair Oliver, Phil Entwisle, Ben Rogers and Josh Ryder. I would also have thought that if Gus Seebeck, Ryan Smyth and Craig Robinson had been available this list could have been even bigger. This is a reward for a lot of hard work from all these players. Coach Rowan Graham has also been rewarded for all his success by being named as an assistant coach for the side as well. Congratulations also go to young Trent Stubbs who was offered a scholarship from Hawthorn and has accepted this offer. We hope that this is the start of a wonderful football career for Trent. This brings the number to four of scholarship players from the East Coast Eagles. Michael Johnson (Hawthorn), Steve O'Connor (Brisbane) and older brother Anthony Stubbs (West Coast) are also scholarship holders. The strength coming through in our young players was further shown by four players being picked in the State under 16 squad. Well done to Michael Johnston, Tyson Coric, Daniel Spiteri and James Dwyer. The future looks bright in Eagles nest. The Eagles look forward to the trip to Wollongong tonight and know what a difficult task it is to play the Lions in their own den. The Eagles especially look forward to playing on the re-vamped ground and it will hopefully give the club some idea of what to look forward to when our ground is completed. The biggest social event for the year is almost upon us. Saturday May 19 is the night of the Black Tie Ball for season 2007. It will be at the Novotel, Sydney Olympic Park. Tickets are $70 for Under 18's, $110 for a single and $200 per couple. The ticket prices include a 3 course meal, beer, wine or soft drinks. All enquiries and bookings should be made with Anthony Dignan on 0433 82 44 55 or via email at anthony@eastcoasteagles.com.au .

Congratulations to Keiren Jack whose promotion to the Swan's senior list is further evidence of strength of the code in Pennant Hills and surrounding districts over many years. Other senior list players for AFL clubs have been Terry Thripp [first SFL player to be recruited by the Swans], Denis Lenaghan, David Brown, Stefan Carey, Ray Hall, Mark McVeigh, Jarrod McVeigh and Lenny Hayes. At our Presentation Evening last year Keiren acknowledged the influence that Greg Barnes [our U18 head coach] had had on his football career. It was great to see Greg sitting with Keiren's parents at Telstra Dome last Saturday evening. Congratulations to Barnaby Howarth on his graduation, this week, from University. Barnaby's recovery from his illness has been an inspiration to all of us at Pennant Hills. Last Saturday saw 4 of our 5 teams have convincing wins. Unfortunately a youthful first grade team was unable to contain the North Shore team with quite a few more experienced players. The depth and number of talented players augers well for the Demons for many years in the future. Today we welcome Sydney University's first and reserve teams back to Ern Homes Oval after many years absence. We also welcome Willoughby Wildcats and Southern Sharks who will play our U18 teams.

The first home game at Sydney University and our Family Day event was a day to remember, particularly the highly skilled and thrilling first grade game and the juniors. It was tremendous to have a sizeable crowd in attendance to support all of the players. Five SU men's teams were in action, one women's team and 2 games of Auskick - a veritable feast of football. Our Second Division "Showdown" whetted the appetites for the Reserves and Seniors clashes with the Eagles who as expected provided tough opposition. Thanks to the Eagles for being great guests at our facilities and we look forward to hosting the other Premier Division teams later in the year. This week the Reds and Blues have a bye while the Premier Division teams are on the road again, this time against last years Premiers Pennant Hills. So far the story is great for the new Gold team who have had a full complement of numbers, with a full bench each week so far. They will face the Goannas at Gipps Road and are looking for an historical first win. A big thank you to the Newtown Swans, and Baulkham Hills Junior clubs for supporting our Family Day, as well as our sponsors Sydney City Toyota, the Bank of Queensland Newtown and Scooteria. We look forward to returning home again in a few weeks.
