The FOXTEL Sydney AFL Premier League has certainly become an open race...St. George sits top of the table after an impressive win against Campbelltown, the Eagles have stumbled whilst the Bombers seem to be sneaking under the radar with an impressive win on Saturday night.

Last weekend produced another excellent display of quality Sydney Football; an upset and some high scoring football were all on show at various grounds around Sydney.

There's definitely no love lost between Campbelltown and St George. Whilst the Blues and Crows were battling it out in the AFL, the Sydney AFL had exactly the same encounter though with a little bit of spice added. Both teams are marked improvers this year and did not want to let this game slip from their grasp.

With the Crows shooting out to a four goal to one lead in the first and Dugmore on fire, the Blues needed an answer though it was never given, and the Crows continued on their merry way to the top of the ladder, eventually running out winners by 55 points. Dugmore now tops the goal kicking table with an impressive 37 goals and with great assistance from Brett Bedwell and Declan Donohue, the Crows are going to be hard to stop.

UNSW and Western Suburbs battled it out on Saturday afternoon at the Village Green. With Brad Abbott still missing from the Bulldogs line-up the Magpies could sense an upset on the cards, though with the likes of Angus Darling, David Coupe, Troy Luff and Peter Kefalas in the side any team facing UNSW in the future is going to have to bring their 'A game' along. After an even first half, the difference ended up being the premiership quarter, with the Bulldogs kicking 5 goals to 3 and winning the closest match of the round by 17 points.

Last Saturday night inflicted the Eagles second loss in a row against a very impressive North Shore outfit. The Eagles impressed all of us at the start of the season, though now are no longer invincible. The Bombers were ultra slick, handled the ball a lot better and with the likes of Adam Lord hovering around the packs, things are looking up for the team who finished outside the Top 4 in 2006. The Bombers easy winners by 39 points.

The Intriguing battle of the week saw the Lions take on the students at University Oval No. 1. I wouldn't say the Lions mauled the students, though they proved that they were another step up from Sydney Uni - just shows what a couple extra years in Premier League can do to a team. Archer and Co. have fantastic endeavour and spirit, though need another season to mature. The Lions ended up winning by 41 points.

It was the case of the 4 D's on Sunday- Dockers, Demons, Drummoyne Oval and unfortunately another Defeat for the Dockers. With Balmain looking like a much improved outfit an upset was on the cards, though the Demons steadied and rallied to win by 34 points. Alex Goodall impressive once again for the Demons, whilst young Joel Curzon kicked four for the Dockers.

Intriguing battle of the week No. 2 - The Dockers Vs The Students....both teams without a win this year and both desperate to win. On form the Dockers have the edge, though can Sydney Uni recapture the form they showed against the Eagles a few weeks ago??

A seven-goal opening quarter set up the NSW/ACT RAMS' 54-point win over the Bendigo Pioneers in their TAC Cup clash at Queen Elizabeth Oval on Sunday.

Exciting RAMS forward Taylor Walker booted seven goals to be best afield as the visitors showed their preparation for the NAB AFL Under-18 Championships was on track, winning 17.18 (120) to 9.12 (66). Despite having to fly to Melbourne and then catch a bus to Bendigo for the clash, the RAMS overcame the travel to easily account for the Pioneers and finish their three TAC Cup clashes for 2007 with a 2-1 record. NSW/ACT beat the Calder Cannons in their opening TAC Cup clash in early May before going down to the Murray Bushrangers last weekend. But they never looked like losing against Bendigo on Sunday as they booted 7.4 to 1.6 in the first term before gradually building on their lead throughout the match and eventually winning by nine goals. Walker was the danger man in attack, versatile big man John Van Meurs impressed on the day while Simon Davies was the pick of the midfielders. RAMS coach Danny Stevens said his team's fast start paved the way for the comfortable win. "We knew we had to get off to a good start and we were able to do that," Stevens said. "This week we put a lot more focus on playing more accountable footy, and I was really pleased that the guys were able to knuckle down and play the type of footy I know they're capable of playing. "All up it was a pretty solid effort and one we can hopefully get a bit of confidence from heading towards the nationals."

RECORD BREAKER— SHANE MCSPEERIN

On behalf of the NSW Umpires Association and all connected with Sydney AFL football congratulations to Shane McSpeerin who last week (Sunday 27 May at the Balmain Dockers vs Pennant Hills game) broke the record of most games by a boundary umpire. Last week was Shane's 268th senior appearance, which is a huge achievement. Shane has been involved in umpiring for 15 years and during that time he has rarely missed a game. Shane is also a life member of the NSW Australian Football Umpires Association. Shane is well known to all of the first grade clubs in Sydney AFL as well as many officials and players. Players and officials have welcomed his friendly and approachable manner and this has done much to promote closer relationships between clubs and umpires. He is an astute student of the game and his insights into the game are well respected. The line "I have a theory" usually precedes some of his best insights. He has also been known to offer "assistance" to field umpires who may be debating the best and fairest votes at the end of a game. Shane possesses an uncanny recall of sporting statistics and his coverage extends to numerous sports. Shane has a prominent sporting background. He played football for Melbourne from 1971 to 1973 and made 16 first grade appearances. He would have played many more first grade games if not for persistent hamstring injuries. He played across the half forward line and was a strong mark. He also possessed great speed, which came from excellent athletic ability. He was a very competitive 800m runner in his school days and he has one of the fastest times for the Demons around the famous "Tan Track" in a pre season run. His football career continued after Melbourne with VFA club Prahran and in later years in the Amateurs. Shane was also a talented cricketer and played A Grade Turf in a Melbourne suburban competition. He was an opening batsman who loved the challenge of facing fast bowlers. Like all good batsmen he appeared to have plenty of time in playing his shots regardless of how quick the bowlers were. After moving from Melbourne to Sydney Shane became involved with the Swans U19's and was the runner for 3 seasons from 1989-91. After the U19's competition was abandoned Shane moved into umpiring in 1992. Of more recent years Shane has battled leg injuries and he could probably write a thesis on the hamstring and adductor. Despite this he still manages to get the task completed each week. The hours on the massage table at training have clearly proved invaluable. Shane is in the twilight of his career and despite the years ticking away he still performs admirably at first grade level. Shane had a very successful career in financial markets. He was a foreign exchange trader in his prime days and later held a senior risk management position at Westpac. He has moved out of the corporate life into the more relaxed atmosphere of Australia Post and can now be seen "walking the beat" around the lower north shore. Congratulations once again and we hope to see you "round the boundary" for many more.

This weekend is the last weekend for the players to impress before the Sydney AFL Representative selectors meet to pick the side the take on ACT at Manuka Oval next Sunday. The initial training squad has lost a number of players through injuries and withdrawals which has opened the door for several young players to get their opportunity to play at the next level. Despite the unavailability of a number of players coach, Mark Drinkwater is confident that the players who will take the field will acquit themselves well and bring home a victory for the Sydney AFL. Also next weekend 22 talented young footballers will be given the opportunity to pit their skills against the Sydney Swans Reserves. With the Canberra competition having a bye next weekend the Swans approached the Sydney AFL about providing a development side to play a scratch match on Saturday at Lakeside. This match is a perfect opportunity for those selected to show their wares in front of the Swans coaches and who knows where a good performance could lead to.

JOEL CURZON (Balmain Dockers)

This week's nomination for the NAB Rising Star is to Joel Curzon from the Balmain Dockers.

Joel is a 17 year old student from Matraville High school who topped the Under 18 Goal Kicking in the Challenge Cup last year. He is in fact School Captain of that school. He was also a member of Balmain's Under 18 Premiership team. Joel is a dedicated trainer and is the future of the Dockers. He is extremely coachable and was a member this year of the Pigeons Under 18 squad which played in the State trials in Coffs Harbour this year. He impressed his coach Mark Drinkwater enormously. Joel has responded extremely well to Damian Hall's coaching at Balmain this year and the result last week showed his steady improvement notching 4 goals against the strong Pennant Hills combination. Joel is a very worthy nomination for the NAB Rising Star.

Previous Nominees:

Rd 1 - Matt Edwins (Campbelltown)

Rd 3 - Ben Haberley (St George)

Rd 4 - Andrew Wild (Sydney Uni)

Rd 5—Ryan Davis (North Shore)

Rd 6 - Joe Cuddington (Western Suburbs)

VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK— STEVE ROWLAND (Wollongong)

AFL Team Supported: Collingwood

Occupation: Industrial Chemist @ Bluescope Steel

How did Steve start out at Wollongong: He came to Wollongong mid 1994 to a job at BHP. Steve joined Campbelltown at 1994 as his uncle, David Murphy, was the the coach, though wishing to meet more local people Steve joined the Lions in 1995 as a player and has played 100 games plus and is still going strong!

What is it about Wollongong that Steve admires: In the mid 1990's the Lions were struggling in the SFA with an older list mainly made up of ex-pats from other states and there were no local juniors. Though thanks to the hard work of a lot of people there is now a strong junior competition in the Illawarra and the Lions list is the youngest it has ever been with a large majority of locals. Also joining the Premier League has been fantastic and seeing the young players happy after a win is very gratifying.

What is the most difficult task you perform: Getting the good footballs out of the creek at the Southern end of North Dalton Park

What are do you think need addressing in the SAFL: Increased umpire numbers, quality junior coaching structure, more AFL specific grounds

Why did the club nominate Steve: Steve's fantastic service to the club has been recognised with life membership. He has been club chairman, secretary, treasurer and is currently football manager. However it is the myriad of jobs around the club that Steve does, like cleaning the sheds and marking the ground that make him Wollongong's Mr AFL.

PRESIDENTS RUMBLINGS

It was a pleasure to run with our record breaking Boundary Umpire Shane McSpeerin at Drummond Oval last weekend. The support provided to Shane by the clubs and the football community was greatly appreciated, and I am sure that the game will be remembered by Shane for a long time. It is interesting to note that Shane came to umpiring after a very distinguished football career. The fact that he took up running the boundary after he turned 40 is a credit to his dedication. Shane is an inspiration to all of us, showing that age is no barrier if you have a desire to be involved. Whilst umpiring is not always the chosen path for those involved in AFL, it certainly can provide a rewarding career. Shane is one of many within our ranks who have taken up umpiring as a second career and without their dedication and perseverance each week the game would not be the same. We have had many Sydney based umpires appointed to the AFL Panel in the Field, Boundary and Goal over the years. Mike Heinrichs umpired an AFL Grand Final in the goals a few years ago - the ultimate achievement for any umpire. AFL Field Umpire Troy Pannell joined the national list from Sydney in 2005. Sergio Villagra currently waves the flags at AFL games and came to us from the crowd at the SCG. In fact, at every Swans home game there will usually be at least one Goal and Boundary Umpire from Sydney appointed to the panel. Each weekend Umpires in all disciplines take the field to be involved in a game that we all treasure and love to be involved in. If you have a passion for AFL and think you have something to offer, why not get involved as Shane and others have done. You too may one day break a record or make it to the top.

MILESTONE UPDATE

Congratulations to Shane McSpeerin, who umpired his 268th Premier Division Senior Grade game in Round 7. This sets a new all time record for a Boundary Umpire in the Sydney AFL Competition (see separate article). Congratulations are also extended to Peter Humphries, who umpired his 200th Sydney AFL game in Round 7.

Welcome to Back to Bears Day

This week North Shore is back at Gore Hill as we welcome the Campbelltown Football Club and our past players for "Back to Bears Day". Today we celebrate the rich history and contribution of those players that represented the North Shore Football Club during the "Bears" era. This era marks some of the most successful in the history of North Shore. During the late 70's and late 80's, the North Shore Bears contested every Grand Final from 1976 to 1980 winning back to back premierships in 1978 and 1979. From 1989 to 1994, the Bears also contested every Grand Final but were only able to bring home the trophy once in 1991. Today, North Shore are known as the Bombers through our affiliation with the Essendon Football Club, but at Gore Hill today we recognize the Bears as our senior side wear a special jumper to commemorate the day. Thanks to all the Bears that have come to Gore Hill and for your on-going support of the North Shore Football Club. Go Bears!

With our Fifth game on the trot at the VG saw us take on the Magpies from the west in a game the scribes call an eight point game. Happy to report the points went to the dogs on the day in a fairly scrubby game where poor kicking from the dogs kept Wests in the game for longer than they should have been. The Sweetheart controlled things in the middle giving onballers an armchair ride whilst racking up the possies round the ground. I Heart Kefalas keeps on keeping on, Duffman repelled countless West attacks hurting them on the turnover and the Chicken Coupe lead well up forward. Meggsy who fought his way into the seniors this week, was miffed when he was sent off the ground for the blood rule, on inspection the blood was found to be just his hair...Our reserves were as thin for players this week as a European super model, with plenty of call ups from the thirds and other avenues. Everyone who took the field gave it there all and as always they were superbly coached. Seb racked them and stacked them, Bretty Roberts is like a bottle of red wine getting better with age, Steve Pech dominated in the ruck and the wings Racetrack Ralphie & Joe Camilleri had their afterburners on with plenty of pace shown. The thirds juggernaut continues to roll on, taking account of Syd Uni Gold. Best players Rob 'Doc' Stevens played well in the ruck, Ben Mostafa lead well all day and kicked eight goals and Paul Gallo who kicked four, David Backler as usual always strong but all in all a good TEAM effort. We went into the game a couple down due to injuries and absence and congratulations to Cammo and Shorty for the call up to the 2's. All the Training is paying off and we delivered the ball well into the forward and Ben Mostafa held some very good grabs. The back line held strong and restricted gold to only 15 point for the entire game. Next week the boys have a tough hit out against Pennant Hills and will need to be firing on all pistons to remain top of the ladder. The Whales brushed aside their recent poor form with a devastating account of Sydney Uni Red. Gull sought and received a commitment from his squad to "go in harder" after a dismal performance the week before. The Whales' backline stood up and repelled almost everything thrown at them, thereby allowing the midfield and forward line to capitalise on their much-improved focus. Best players were; Ben "Army Boy" Currie, John "I'm not a tool" O'Toole, Tim "Munster" Herrmann, Rohan "Second Effort" Murugasu, James "I'm a Ruckman, dammit" Eginton and Michael "Mish" McAlister, in his first game for the club. James "Rowdy" Boettiger also played well again up forward, booting three and would have kicked a lot more if we'd hit him. It was the side's first win for the season but definitely not their last as it overcomes a long list of injuries and the development of 30 rookies in its squad. The lads were last seen celebrating at the coach's birthday bash...with rumours of one senior player getting dropped home in the back of a paddy wagon. The Unders travelled out to Pen-rough on Saturday, given the amount of private schoolboys they started with 14 and finished with much less. The boys fought on valiantly, Cult figure Banjo Paterson played out of his skin (and moustache!) on the wing, and Chris "Michael" Jourdain dominated before he had to leave to play rugby at half time. More injuries in the second half didn't help and the boys went down by 4 goals finishing with just 12 men on the park.

It was fantastic to get back on the winners list on Sunday up at Sydney University. In a real collective effort, the Seniors played some fast attacking football, and chased, tackled and made plenty of sacrificial efforts when the opposition had the ball. After an even first term, the boys broke clear in the second quarter and this time went on with the job for the rest of the afternoon. The win was the Lions first at Sydney Uni, but perhaps there were no mental scars to overcome since only two players had ever visited No.1 Oval before, a sign of how much the list has changed since our last visit in 2003. The Reserves again battled hard but failed to bring home the points against the Students. After an even first term, the hosts took over for the next 2 quarters as the Lions reverted to old habits. An encouraging last quarter will give the boys something to build on for next weeks game against the Bulldogs. The Under 18's took on the undefeated Wildcats on Saturday and despite being soundly beaten, put in another spirited performance. The boys will be cooling their heels for the next two weekends and will come out fresh for a crunch game against Campbelltown on June 16. Next Home Game: Pennant Hills, Sunday June 24. Under 18's at 10am, Reserves at 12pm and

The Blues had a mixed day against St George last Saturday, winning both Reserves and Under 18's but losing the Seniors which saw them slide out of the top four for the first time this year. The Seniors was a torrid affair with the Crows getting the jump in the first quarter. Mark Irving and Marty Robereda continued their excellent form whilst Mark Maher played his best game of the year. The resses made it four wins on the trot with another impressive performance. Royce Simpson, Daniel MacPherson and Anthony Pratt had strong games. The Under 18's also continued their winning streak with a narrow victory over the Crows. Daniel Wilson, Nathan Vella and Shane Doherty were the best. Today we take on North Shore in an important game for the club. With North Shore celebrating "Back to Bear" day there should be a good crowd so lets show them that we are the real deal and bring three wins back to Monarch.

Trailing by as much as 38 points eight minutes into the third quarter against the winless Balmain Dockers at Drummoyne Oval on Sunday, Pennant Hills suddenly clicked into gear and kicked eight goals to a further two to gain a slender three point lead at the last change. The hardness at the ball which the Demons had been lacking returned, but faded again just as quickly in the early stages of the last quarter when the Dockers missed three easy shots at goal which would have seen them regain the lead. But the Demons again switched on to gain the ascendancy and finished full of running to win by 34 points, 19-21-135 to 15-11-101, in a game which ended in darkness because of a later than usual start. Pennant Hills coach Michael Cousens must be concerned about his team's wayward goal kicking, a trait which is evident almost every week, and its poor concentration through 100 minutes of football. Pleasing aspects of the game came with another impressive debut by a youngster, Bart Mill, and further improvement from midfielder Aaron Clayden. Mill, promoted from the Under 18's, fitted in well with the team pattern and played with a maturity beyond his years. Others to impress were Alex Goodall, Damian Dell'Aquila, Rob Watts, particularly early in the game, and Kieran Wright who was sharp around goal and finished with three majors. In the end, this game was won by the team that thought they could, against another who doubted themselves. Now in fourth position on the ladder, Pennant Hills face a big test on Saturday at Ern Holmes Oval when they face the leaders, St.George.

The Eagles take the trip to Wagener Oval today and will look to end a two match losing streak against the Magpies. The team is gaining valuable experience with a mounting injury toll and some of the young players that have been asked to come into the side have been fantastic. Ashley Moeller in first senior game last weekend showed he has a great future with the club and Anthony Stubbs continues to take giant strides forward each week. Both boys are Under 18 and are the future of the club. The greatest news to come from the club last week was the announcement of the engagement between Marree Murphy and Steve Gawley. Both are fantastic supporters of the club and are two people who have put their heart and soul into the club. The whole club is wrapped by this announcement and we wish them a great wedding day in November and a continued great future together. The Reserve grade boys continue to set the mark and again proved too strong for North Shore last week. They have certainly shown with a mounting injury toll in the club that they have the depth to be competitive in every game they play. Coach Jason Duss would be a very happy man at this stage of the season. Both Under 18 teams will be looking to bounce back after a not so good weekend last weekend. There is much potential on paper but games are not played on paper. The next function for the Club is the Golf Day. It will be played at Riverside Oaks on Friday 22 June. To book your groups contact Graeme Bleus on 0412 683 142. This weekend will also coincide with our first home game at the Sydney Showgrounds and the Swans v Collingwood game at Telstra Stadium. It should be a great sporting weekend. See you at the football.

The Magpies suffered a loss last week at the hands of a strong UNSW-ES team. This was a game where we always had a chance but we weren't able to capitalize on our opportunities in front of goal. Poor team work and far too many skill errors cost us dearly. The pressure is right on us now as a win is desperately needed today if we are to have real input at the right end of the season. At home to East Coast we must leave no stone unturned. Reserve grade were once again very competitive but cant seem to drag the 4 points our way. Today could be the turning point for Tardy and his men. Under 18s had the bye last week and should be jumping at the opportunity to take the field today against the eagles and put on a grand showing. Don't forget to book your tickets for the SPORTS NIGHT with SWANS legend BARRY ROUND and COLLINGWOOD all time great LEN THOMPSON on Friday 22nd June., 8 pm in the Skyline lounge. Last week St George played Campbelltown in what was sometimes a bruising encounter that depleted our already shallow depth of available players due to injury. The Crows showed their character and played perhaps their best game of the year to easily account for the improved Blues side at their home ground. Peter Dugmore, who is obviously enjoying having Robbie Ahmat in the forward lines directing traffic, kicked 7 goals and the back-lines showed a no nonsense approach to repel Campbelltown attacks. The depleted mid field again did a great job getting the ball into the forward 50. This week the Crows play the very respected Pennant Hills Demons on the home ground. St George are aware that that Pennant Hills are very good club and side and know that they will have to be at their best to conquer the Demons in this round. It should be a wonderful game of football to watch.

Today we welcome Sydney University to Drummoyne Oval for the first time in many years. Like ourselves the University has experienced a tough start to the season. To day one of the teams will "break the drought". It was a much improved performance by The Dockers with all players giving their all for the club. It was fantastic to see so many "old timers" at last Friday's Hall of Fame and 1997 Premiership reunion. It was also fantastic on the night to receive a major sponsorship cheque from the Thyssen Krupp Elevator Company who's support for community sport is second to none. Well done To Simon Kelly for organising and presenting such a high quality event. Say hello to Imon, Punter, Tilly and Tommy under the "tree of Knowledge" to day. We look forward to a great clash to day. Don't forget to make your way back to the Drummoyne Sports Club to relive the great moments of to day's game. Remember the longer you stay, the greater the moment becomes! Let's "clock up" a great win to day.

Last week the Blues continued their good run in the 2nd division competition, dominating Holroyd-Parramatta. This win sees them jump into 4th position on the table. The Reds and Golds unfortunately had losses to the very strong UNSW/ES outfits. In premier division it was mixed emotions for the students. The First grade boys continue to find that first elusive win as they went down to the Wollongong Lions. However, the reserves had a win, building again on last weeks result to come out confident victors. The Students will head to their close neighbours at Drummoyne Oval next week to take on the Balmain Dockers. Once again every week produces a challenge and the first grade fixture will definitely produce a fiery contest with both sides chasing their first win. This weekend also boasts another encounter between the Blue and Red sides at Oval No.1, while the Golds take on Holroyd-Parramatta at Alan Davidson Oval. The club would like to farewell Aaron Crespi, who played his last game of his long career for Sydney Uni last weekend. Aaron has been at the club for 9 years and in that time he has become a well known for his skills and intensity at the ball. We wish all the best to Aaron in the future and thank him for his contribution to the club over the past decade.
