

Position Description

Macquarie University Australian Football Club

TITLE: Men's Platinum Division Head Coach

KEY LINKS: President, Committee, Coaches, Head of Strength and Conditioning, Players

DIRECT REPORTS: Assistant Coaches

EMPLOYMENT TYPE: Part-time

POSITION SCOPE:

The role will work to coach and develop the Macquarie University Australian Football Club men's program to perform consistently at their highest level.

POSITION PURPOSE:

- Ensure ongoing duty of care and football development of all players relating to on and off field development
- Drive the delivery of the men's football program and continue to raise standards to be competitive in the Platinum competition
- Training design, set up and review
- Provide leadership and best practices in football program development and coaching

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

Culture & Leadership

- Demonstrate leadership of the club's values both within the women's program and across the club

Stakeholder Relationships

- Maintain a comprehensive knowledge of all AFL Rules and Regulations, including the requirements of AFL Sydney by-laws
- Develop and foster relationships within the men's program, as well as the wider club

Operational Execution

Platinum Division Reserves Head Coach

- Coach Platinum Division Reserves team on gameday

Training, design, preparation and analysis

- Drive delivery of club men's program
- Training drill design and delivery
- Coordinate, set-up and execute training drills

KEY COMPETENCIES:

- High energy level, ability to effectively apply knowledge with strong desire to achieve
- Ability to drive positive culture and engagement among the playing group
- Great communication skills with the playing group and football committee
- Ability to implement game plans and structures
- Support other men's program coaches
- Willingness and ability to develop players of various abilities and experience

All coaches expressing their interest must have at least their Level 1 coaching accreditation and a valid Working with Children Check. Previous coaching experience at a similar level is preferred.

Applications, as well as any questions or enquiries, should be submitted to Club President Kristian Purdie at kristian.purdie@gmail.com.