"Streamer's interface and usability is second to none. AFL Sydney viewers just need to go to the AFL Sydney Streamer Dashboard (<https://streamer.com.au/league/aflsydney>) to watch our teams go head-to-head each and every week of the AFL Sydney season. They don't need to download any apps, give credit card details or even create an account. It's a wonderful outcome for us, our clubs and supporters, making our footy more accessible to more people."

Streamer Operations Manager, Nick Rynne, was complementary of AFL Sydney ahead of the season's April start. "The AFL Sydney community represents everything that we love about local sport – a strong league that has bold ambitions, but at the same time maintains such powerful grassroots connections," he said. "We absolutely can't wait to get involved this season and help showcase everything that makes AFL Sydney great."

The Voice of AFL Sydney, David Redden, will return for his fifth season as head of the AFL Sydney commentary team. David will be joined by Jono Farr and Ash Borg to support the AFL Sydney footy coverage in season 2024. As a further boost to the league, the match coverage will now include extended match previews and reviews as well as interviews with players, coaches and officials.

The first matches to air exclusively on Streamer will be in Round One of the 2024 AFL Sydney season on Saturday, April 6.
